The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, the veto of the Sowers-Conner Bill is a surprise to no one. The Governor previously stated that he would not sign a beer control bill authorizing Judges to grant licenses or where politics played a part.

I have drawn a bill to meet the Governor's view point. The Bill which I have presented provides for the granting of licenses to manufacturers by the State Treasurer, and to wholesale and retail distributors by County Treasurers. It is mandatory on their part to grant the licenses, and provides for revocation of Courts of Quarter Sessions.

This Bill was prepared by me after consultation with General Edward Martin, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, and represents an effort on the part of the State Organization to regulate the traffic in beer. It is the opinion of the State Organization not only that revenues should be derived from the sale of beer but that the distribution should be controlled. I ask for favorable consideration of this bill, and at the same time urge Members of the House and Senate to promptly pass the revenue bill which was reported from the Committee on Ways and Means of the House today, and which will provide revenue from the sale of beer amounting to seven and a half million dollars for the biennium.

As Chairman of the Committee on Finance of the Senate, I wish it understood by everyone that this revenue must be had if the State is to provide sufficient money for the relief of the unemployed.

RESOLUTIONS

URGING OBSERVANCE OF FLAG DAY IN SCHOOLS

Mr. RHODES offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over for printing.

In the House of Representatives, April 20, 1933.

On the fourteenth day of June, 1777, the Congress of the United States, by resolution, enacted that "the flag of the United States be thirteen stripes, alternating red and white, and that the Union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Patriotic citizens and various organizations have for many years been observing that day as Flag Day, and by holding and fostering the holding of services at which love of flag and country were emphasized in addresses, have endeavored to inculcate into the minds and hearts of future citizens a sincere devotion to our flag and the country for which it stands.

A true regard and respect for our flag and the law it symbolizes is the basis of true patriotism without which the Nation cannot long endure.

The teaching to the youth of our country of the origin, development and meaning of the flag, of what it stands for and what it typifies is more important than any other teaching; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That this Legislature hereby suggests to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the holding in every public school in the Commonwealth of Flag Day exercises on an appropriate day in each year to be selected by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

That it is further suggested the Department of Public Instruction prepare and submit to the board of school directors of each school district within the Commonwealth an appropriate program best suited to the various grades with suggestions as to how such programs can best be rendered, with the idea of developing in each pupil a proper realization of the meaning of our flag and an idealization of all it symbolizes; and

That a copy of this resolution be forthwith forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1447, Senate Bill No. 228, Printer's No. 488, on page 27, of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Turner,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1447 (Senate Bill No. 228), entitled:

An Act relating to taxation designating the subjects property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto and repealing existing laws

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is the bill concerning which the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, asked for information yesterday. I have in my hand a letter signed by Mr. Fertig, the head of the Reference Bureau in which he says: "Senate Bill No. 228, House Bill No. 1447, is a codification of the County Tax Assessment Laws. This bill was drawn by the Legislative Reference Bureau in accordance with directions contained in a concurrent resolution passed at the 1931 session of the Legislature.

"The bill as introduced contained no new matter and was certified to the Legislature in a printed report made early in the session as containing a correct statement of the existing law. The amendments inserted in the Senate are purely correctional, except the one providing for annual assessments in counties of the first class, which confirms the practice of that city pursued for many years. All of these amendments were drawn in the Bureau and we are convinced they add to the clarification of the Code.

"The Bureau has no interest in the bill except that it, of course, had to obey the mandate of the General Assembly to present this Code and that if enacted it will constitute one more step in the codification of the laws of the Commonwealth."

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

THE SPEAKER (GROVER C. TALBOT) IN THE CHAIR

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 1681

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 20, 1933.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1681, Printer's No. 858, entitled "An Act to regulate and restrain the traffic in malt brewed and vinous and fruit juice beverages as herein defined providing for the licensing of the manufacture sale transportation and distribution of such beverages imposing taxes and license fees and providing for collection and distribution of revenues therefrom restricting ownership and interest in licensed places making appropriations providing penalties and repealing existing acts."

This is a vicious bill.

It has four purposes: It would bring back the saloon; it would put beer back into politics; it would force the courts into the beer business. Any one of these three would justify a veto.

The fourth purpose is to delay any taxation on beer and give the brewers more time to clean up. It works out like this:

This bill is a regulatory measure. It is also a taxing measure. These are two subjects. The constitution provides that there can be only one subject in any bill. Therefore this bill is unconstitutional.

By putting two subjects in this bill its authors made still more certain that the bill, including its beer taxing provisions, would be vetoed. They deliberately played for delay, possibly drawn out through months of litigation. Thus the golden harvest of the brewers would be prolonged.

Every day's delay in passing a beer tax bill means an additional profit of at least $10,000 to Pennsylvania brewers, and a corresponding loss to the State for unemployment relief.

I am told that a part of the conspiracy between certain brewers and their attorney and an influential member of the Legislature is to adjourn quickly and thus prevent the passage of any beer revenue measure at all during the present session.

I am unalterably opposed, and so are the people of Pennsylvania, to the return of the old saloon system. It corrupted the community, and gave special privileges to a few at such high cost that to make a profit they had to violate the law.

I am unalterably opposed, and so are the people of Pennsylvania, to besmirching our judges with the foul atmosphere of the license court, thus forcing beer into the election of judges.

I am unalterably opposed, and so are the people of Pennsylvania, to putting beer back into politics, to become again, as it used to be, a powerful weapon in the hands of unscrupulous politicians.

I am convinced that the vast majority of the people of Pennsylvania, wets and drys alike, are with me in these positions.

The people of Pennsylvania are entitled to decent, clean, open regulation of the sale of beer, free from special privilege and free from politics. This bill is a glaring attempt to prevent it.

The people of Pennsylvania are entitled to reasonable taxation on beer, and entitled to it at once. They are equally entitled to a prompt ending of the present brewers' jubilee. They are selling beer at so high a price that they could not raise it and pass the tax along to the consumer.

The loss of $10,000 a day to the unemployed is squarely on the doorstep of a small group of men who think more of the brewers' profits than they do of the good name of the State and the needs of the unemployed.

There are many othe robjections to this bill, but these are enough. I gave notice long ago that I would veto it.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

STATEMENT BY MR. TURNER

Mr. TURNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am sure we were all very much touched the other night when the Speaker, after signing the Beer Bill presented a beautiful green fountain pen to our friend 'Pat' Conner. I know that he is going to preserve it in his archives just as I shall a copy of the roll on the Howell Resolution. I am going to have it framed and hung upon the wall of my den, to have kept among my archives. I didn't want my friend 'Clint' Sowers to feel slighted in seeing 'Pat' Conner walk off with the green fountain pen. Therefore, I asked the Secretary to the Governor if I could not have the pen with which the veto was signed, and he offered me this very beautiful pen, done up in black, a little bit late, and he will realize we are not done with Pinchot ideas, but just the same 'Clint' I think you ought to have this to hang on the wall, or put in your archives.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I am greatly touched by this gift and I shall hang it on the wall as a memento of the continuance of a system that permits highballs to be sold in chain stores to children.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentlemen will be spread upon the Journal.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Spann, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SPANN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BECHTEL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the sponsor, why is it necessary that a real estate agent take an examination before the Department in real property, conveyancing, mortgages, real estate laws and so forth? Does the gentleman intend that the real estate men shall become lawyers?

Mr. SPANN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Bechtel, I desire to say that this bill was introduced at the request of the Department of Public Instruction. It is not an individual matter with me at all. The real estate license division of which Mr. Semenow is the head requested that the bill be introduced after it had been approved by the important real estate boards of Pennsylvania. We have no personal interest in the bill whatsoever, except that I was afraid it would not affect those already licensed and as far as the provisions referring to persons applying for licenses in the future the requirements merely amount to "elementary educational requirements."

Mr. BECHTEL. When you say that it merely requires elementary educational requirements, that would be true if you took out of this bill the provisions that you have to know the laws on real property, conveyancing, mortgages and the real estate laws and so forth.

Mr. SPANN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the language of the act as I read it on page 3, and I presume that is the part to which the gentleman from Schuylkill County, Mr. Bechtel, is referring provides "That examination shall include the subjects of reading, writing, spelling and elementary arithmetic."

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the provisions of this act mean only practically what the average real estate man knows today. It does not require any technical knowledge or any special training at all.

Mr. BECHTEL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in my opinion this bill will work an additional hardship on real estate agents. It requires more than a general elementary knowledge of reading, writing and arithmetic. This bill would send these men into a short law course whereby they would have to gain a technical knowledge of conveyancing, real property, agreements, mortgages, and so forth. Further than it sets up each real estate man as a lawyer by reason of the fact that he passed an examination in regard to these subjects, and he would consider himself qualified to practice law in regard to the same. I do not believe the laywers are in a position to be relegated to the scrap heap at this time in Pennsylvania, and that they still are of some use. I think the bill should be voted down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. SPANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2011, entitled:

An act for the protection of public health, by regulating the outer wearing apparel and towels of employes in certain stores, shops, plants or restaurants where food and drink for human consumption are handled; providing penalties; and providing for the enforcement of the act by State Departments.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Spann, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SPANN, I will, Mr Speaker.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, I understand this applies to a sale where food is sold for human consumption. On page 2 of this bill it states that the outer garments of any employe must be washed and sterilized daily whether used or not in a steam power laundry. Is that correct?

Mr. SPANN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that is correct where it is used in the serving of food.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, as I take the provisions of the bill, I take it that these outer garments are to be laundered daily whether or not they are used.

Mr. SPANN. Mr. Speaker, I beg the gentleman's pardon, I didn't hear him.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, as I take it, the outer garments of the employe are to be washed and sterilized daily whether or not they are used.

Mr. SPANN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I don't read that in the act.

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, possibly that is not the intent, but the law so reads. It also provides that they be washed and sterilized in a steam or power laundry, which would forbid the washing of the garment at home or in any other kind of a laundry.

Mr. SPANN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that is the object of the bill, yes sir.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill would seem to me to be very revolutionary and place a very drastic penalty on the proprietor of stores and restaurants, and unless the sponsor of the bill has some personal interest in it, I would like to make a motion to recommit the bill for further study to the Committee on public Health and Sanitation.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SPANN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman from Cumberland will withdraw his motion, I will agree to place the bill on the postponed calendar and attempt to make such changes in the bill as will be acceptable to him.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cumberland, Mr. Wade, withdraw his motion?

Mr. WADE. Mr. Speaker, I will be glad to withdraw the motion.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. SPANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2324, entitled:

An Act to amend part of section one of the act, approved the tenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 455), entitled "An act to fix the number of representatives in the General Assembly of the State, and to apportion the State into representative districts as provided in the Constitution," by changing certain representative districts in Allegheny County and increasing the number of Representatives allowed such county.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. W. L. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say a word with reference to this bill. This bill does not in any way affect any legislative district in the State of Pennsylvania, with the exception of the thirteenth legislative district in Allegheny County, which at the present time has a population of one hundred and eighty-seven thousand plus. This bill only provides that the thirteenth legislative district be divided into two districts, making the thirteenth district the eastern part of the present district, into what will be known if this bill is passed as the thirteenth district, and the western part, which is most thickly populated, will be in the fourteenth district, and which will elect two members. Mr. Fertig assured me that this would not affect anything else in the State and would give two hundred and nine members of the Legislature instead of two hundred and eight. So I cannot see where in any manner or form it could affect any member in his district in Pennsylvania. I would be pleased very much to have your support for this bill, as it is a very difficult task to campaign over a district fifty miles long and from fifteen to eighteen miles wide, and which takes in about one third of the area of Allegheny County. I will be pleased with your support.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

STATEMENT BY MR. WITKIN

Mr. WITKIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I know that you are anxious to get away, but the matter that I am about to place before you is one of great importance, and I trust that you will indulge me for a few moments.

Just today, His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, has vetoed the bill commonly known as the Conner-Sowers Bill. That veto meant that there would be no revenue coming into the coffers of the Commonwealth during the next biennium. It strikes me, as I daresay it strikes you, that the Legislature of Pennsylvania has been reduced to a body that has no real power because of these unweildy vetoes exorted and told by His Excellency, the Governor, that if we do this or don't do that, he is going to veto that which we do do.

It might be well said we are almost a nullity as a Legislature in Pennsylvania during the administration of Gifford Pinchot, because I dare say you agree with me that there has not been a matter before this Legislature of any great importance upon which you have not been told "Either do as I say or you will get nothing." He has perhaps correctly or incorrectly and certainly in his own opinion he has interpreted himself as the omnipotent and Almighty; He can do no wrong. We the members of this House and the members of the Senate in his opinion are mere numbskulls, we know nothing, we are never right, never during his administration to my knowledge have we ever been right on any subject.

To the hungry and the starving that are being deprived of the revenue of the beer bill, I say, and I say to the members of this House that the getleman to the right of us, that the great God who sits in that office over there, is responsible and not us. If there ever was a case of stubborness, obstinacy, and a firm desire to crack the whip and make us bow our heads and bend our knees to his almighty will, I charge it to Governor Pinchot. I say to the members of this House that when the Governor vetoed the Conner-Sowers Bill, he continued to do that which he has done with this Legislature for several months, to wit: to delay and to obstruct and to endeavor to thwart the interest of the people of this Commonwealth.

What are we to do?

We can be just a stubborn as he. We could sit here in our seats and do nothing. We think we are endowed with some of the qualities that God gives to us all, and we won't let the hungry starve, we will give them revenue. And I say to his Excellency, the Governor of the State, that the members of this Legislature are bigger men that he will ever be, we are stronger in our convictions as to what is right, and are more uninfluenced by politics than the Governor can ever hope to be, and we are not going to let the people who need the money be without revenue during the next two years.

I have refrained from calling a meeting of the Ways and Means Committee to consider this tax bill for the reason that it was my firm judgment that where a tax bill was on its way to the Governor's desk, there was no necessity for bringing forth a duplicate tax measure, but when in his wisdom and in his endeavor to be politically sagacious, he vetoes that bill, and there is no bill before you, I consider it my duty, and it was my duty and your duty, to bring forth, irrespective of the control of beer, a tax raising revenue measure, the bill that in a few moments shall be reported to you. When we do that the Governor may gloat and he may sit back in that little room, and say the cracking of the whip succeeded, the little horses and the little ponies have again bowed to my will. Let me say to him that he is wrong. We are bowing to a will, but we are bowing to the will of our own conscience, we are bowing to the will of the unemployed and starving about whom he talks and does nothing and who must have the revenue from this beer tax ,and when he chuckles, let him chuckle over the fact that he is the one, and that the people will well know that he is the man who has defeated the revenue, that he is the man who has helped the brewers, that he is the man who has helped keep money in the pockets of the brewers, and that he is the man who is delaying help to the people, and that it is not the Legislature of Pennsylvania, but the Governor of this Commonwealth.

In conclusion, members of the Legislature, let me say this: I don't know just what is going to happen with beer. I don't know whether there is going to be a control measure or not, but I do know this: I say when his Excellency, the Governor, says in so many words, that he doesn't want to put beer into politics, I say that he is a political hypocrite, because if ever a man has injected the subject of beer into politics, it is unthat the members of this Legislature are allied with brewery interests, I say that he says that which he knows to be an untruth. I say to you, members of this Legislature that I know of no alignment between the members of this House and the brewery interests, and it is a great thing to be told and to get the publicity that the Governor gets when he says in his veto statement and puts into that communication untruths, such as saying that we are not going to besmirch our courts. Besmirching the courts because you give them a power, because you give them a right to say that only decent people shall sell beer; besmirching the courts because you give them the right to say that gangsters and thieves shall sell beer. Is that besmirching our courts? The Governor uses fine words, he has a fine vocabulary, and he is clever, but he is as untruthful politically as any man who ever sat in that chair or upon the floor of this House.

Mr. Speaker, I desire to report to you and to this House, for two readings in accordance with the agreement of the Ways and Means Committee, House Bill No. 2096, known as a tax raising revenue measure.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. WITKIN, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported as amended, House Bill No. 2096, entitled:

An Act imposing a State tax, payable by those herein defined as manufacturers and distributors, on non-intoxicating alcoholic beverages used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth; prescribing the method and manner of evidencing the payment and collection of such tax; conferring powers and imposing duties on the Department of Revenue and those using or engaged in the sale of non-intoxicating alcoholic beverages at retail or wholesale; and providing penalties.

Section 25. Constitutionality.—The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act. The SPEAKER. The Chair directs that the amendments be spread in the Legislative Journal.

STATEMENT BY MR. RHODES

Mr. RHODES asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have been listening with a great deal of interest to the statements of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, and I am not going to either deny or affirm the statements that he has made. His statements are a matter that pertain only to the various factions in the Republican party.

On the other hand I think that we have made a very serious error in not taking up this tax measure at the proper time. In my opinion this delay for taxing beer is inexcusable. Before the seventh day of April, so that a tax measure could have become effective, I think the Democrats had a caucus in the House Caucus Room about one o'clock in the morning, when some of the gentlemen from Philadelphia were present, and it was suggested at that time in view of the controversial questions with relation to regulation that we proceed to levy taxes on beer so as to have it effective before the seventh of April. That was not listened to. We were willing to go along in our entirety on that proposition.

Insofar as the situation is concerned at the present time it is apparent that we have lost a great deal of revenue because of this delay. Unfortunately there is a great deal of controversy about what the regulatory bill should contain and it seems to me that those who have dilly dallied along in connection with this tax matter are the ones that will have to take the responsibility for depriving the people of Pennsylvania of this income. There is a great deal of doubt about the constitutionality of the Conners-Sowers bill. Some lawyers say that it is constitutional while other eminent lawyers in the state say that it is unconstitutional. It contains a tax measure on the one hand and a regulatory feature on the other. Suppose this Conners-Sowers measure should have become a law, and the Legislature would have adjourned and the constitutionality of the bill would have been attacked in the courts, then, if, according to many of the best legal minds in the State it was found to be unconstitutional we would have had no tax whatever upon beer.

The only sensible way to have proceeded would have been to have prepared a bill to levy this tax measure of $1.24 on beer. I do not see why, because of party affiliations there should have been any delay in passing this tax measure before the seventh of April in order that the people might have derived this revenue. Regardless of party affiliations it seems to me that we should have put public welfare above petty political maneuvers and I say that without any reflection on any political faction, I say that as a member of this House regardless of party interest but in the interest of accomplishing something constructive. If we had done that we would have had legislation today and we would have avoided all of the pitfalls that we have been injected into if the Conners-Sowers bill was passed and declared unconstitutional. The sane way was to have separated the tax measure from the regulatory measure and in that way have avoided all these different maneuvers by the different factions in the House.

Mr. SOWERS. I listened with a great deal of interest to my friend, Mr. Rhodes, and I was surprised to hear him say that the Democratic Party was united. I never found them united in any of our discussions of this beer bill. I have asked them time and time again for their thought, for their program, for what they would stand for, and up to this time I have received nothing from them but objections.

They stood for a commission with salaries and I promised to put it in the bill before it went into the Senate and it was put in the bill, but the Senate with all the Democratic party united voted the commission out and then the bill came back to this House with the commission feature voted out. It was not the fault of the Republicans that it went out. It was the fault of the Democratic Party that it went out, by their united effort in the Senate.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, may I have the privilege of replying to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes will proceed.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the Democrats were called into a caucus one morning at about one o'clock, in the House Caucus Room, I think it was on the 7th of April. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, was present and it was decided there by the Democrats in their entirety that they would go along immediately with a tax measure and allow the regulatory features to be determined later. The Democrats were unanimous in their position that they wanted a tax measure put on, a State tax of one dollar a barrel on beer at once and that the regulatory provisions of the act could be determined later.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, and the remarks of the gentleman from Monroe, Mr. Rhodes, will be noted in the Journal and spread at length upon the Legislative Journal.

And has appointed Messrs. Williamson, Staudenmeier and Ealy a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (already appointed) on the subject of the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

STATEMENT BY MR. JONES

Mr. JONES asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I listened with a great deal of interest to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, make his statement and in his statement he blames the Governor of the Commonwealth with blocking the revenue from beer.

The bill that they introduced out of the Ways and Means Committee today, House Bill No. 2096, introduced by Representative McClure, was introduced March 29th, and this is a tax measure only.

The other night when the gentleman from Philadelphia objected to unanimous consent on my resolution I went to him and tried to get him to recall it. He would not recall his objections. He refused to let me introduce my resolution.

The gentleman from Philadelphia blames this whole thing on the Governor of the Commonwealth. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, who is chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, knows that that committee has had this bill in their hands since March 28th, and they could have had action on it but he refused to produce the bill and have action on it, and therefore I feel that he is responsible for this bill not coming out of committee.

Further, in the discussion the other night, in a cross-examination of me by Mr. Witkin, he made the assertion, or the crack, that he was glad that I knew something, and I retorted, heatedly by the way, that I knew as much as him. At this time I want to apologize to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, that I recognize the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, as being the most eminent and the most learned lawyer in this House, even though my friend Mr. Brown made a monkey out of him the other night.

Now, I am recognizing the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin as being a master genius, and he should have known, and I suppose he does know, that the Sowers-Conners bill would be unconstitutional on account of its dealing with two matters, and knowing that I want to leave it up to this House as to who obstructed the getting of the revenue by the State of Pennsylvania so far. Now we are going home; we will be away from here for three days and as the newspapers say we are losing ten thousand dollars a day.

Mr. Fertig who made the resolution, framed it, that I introduced tells me one thing—the gentleman from Philadelphia says it is not so, so probably it is not so—but I just want the members of this House to use their judgment as to who was obstructing the revenue from the beer bill and who is taking it away from the women and children who are starving to death, which he said so heatedly was the duty of the Governor of Pennsylvania.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentlemen will be spread at length upon the Legislative Journal.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask leave of the House for a minute and a half to answer the gentleman from Luzerne.

The SPEAKER. Is there objections[TheChair hears none and the gentleman will proceed.

Mr. ANDREWS. I object.

Mr. Witkin. Mr. Speaker, may I say to the gentleman from Luzerne that his endeavor to place the responsibility——

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, what is the order of the day? Is the gentleman talking by unanimous consent? If so, I clearly objected.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, is out of order. The Chair heard no objection when he asked for the consent of the House, and the gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House——

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, speaking by unanimous consent?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, is informed that that is correct.

Mr. ANDREWS. I objected, Mr. Speaker, very clearly and continue to object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair heard no objections and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, will proceed.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, now that the gentleman who travels up and down from Cambria has retained his seat, may I say to the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones, that I accept the responsibility for not calling a meeting of the Ways and Means Committee to consider House Bill No. 2096. I did so because I had a little more confidence in the Governor of Pennsylvania then than I do now. I did not think that the Governor was going to be so bold and so audacious as to carry out his threat to veto a bill that meant so much to the people of this Commonwealth. I thought that probably once again he would turn turtle as he did on the Talbot bill a few years ago. I had great confidence in his despite his breaking of promises in the past, despite his obstructing legislation in this House. I still thought there was some semblance of an endeavor, irrespective of party politics, a willingness on his part to do the right thing.

I saw a revenue bill passing through this House moving with the greatest dispatch that it could have; I saw Mr. Sowers and the members of the House and of the Senate endeavoring to put upon the Governor's desk a bill that would give the people revenue and at the same time stop criminals from selling beer throughout all of the communities of the State. I had watched the Governor daily trying to do everything he could to stop its passage. I saw him helping the brewers, I saw him stopping the collection of a beer tax, but I sincerely thought that this man could not be as bad as he appears to be and when the regulatory measure goes over to him he will sign it and stop obstructing the Legislature from doing its duty and let the Legislature for once during his administration do something that he didn't think was right.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I submit that the gentleman's minute and a half is up.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I saw that, and, as I saw it I felt that I was doing right in not interfering with another bill that was moving through the House and the Senate, but to my amazement and consternation and I must say utter surprise, I found the great supreme being, the dictator, the czar of Pennsylvania, saying "No, you play my way or not at all" and once again the Governor appears in his true role of a czar, of a dictator, of a self-appointed God who wants to rule the destinies, singlehanded, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and who resents the interference of every man and woman as a member of the Senate and of the House and says: "Let me alone, I am God and alone I shall rule."

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker I would like unanimous consent for four minutes to make a statement.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent? The Chair hears objections, but the Chair rules that any member may arise and make a statement if the majority of the members desire to hear the statement. Are their objections? The Chair hears none and the gentleman may proceed.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia has told the members of the House what he has seen and heard. I want to tell you, members of the House, something of what I have seen and heard. I saw the gentleman from Philadelphia in the midst of a conference of the leaders of the State with the Governor and at the conclusion of that conference I heard the Governor of the Commonwealth say "Let us understand each other before we leave this conference. We agree that a revenue measure shall be framed, reported and passed. We are agreed on a revenue measure, are we not" and the gentlemen in the conference including the gentleman from Philadelphia said "We are agreed on that."

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, permit me to inform him that he is very much mistaken, that I was not in that conference.

Mr. ANDREWS. And then the Governor said "Let us understand each other further, we are not in agreement on control," and they agreed that they were not in agreement on control, and the leaders of the party left that conference pledged to enact a revenue measure upon which the leaders of the party were agreed and left that conference understanding that they were to continue to disagree regarding control.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. WALTER S. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday evening, April 24, 1933, at 9 o'clock.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 1.28 P. M.) the House adjourned until Monday, April 24, 1933, at 9 o'clock P. M.

REDUCTION OF SALARIES OF STATE GOVERNMENT OFFICERS AND EMPLOYES

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has non-concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, February 21, 1933.

Whereas, The continuance of the economic depression has seriously affected the revenues of all forms of Government and necessitates the greatest economy and reduction in governmental costs possible in order that budgets may be balanced, and our unemployed cared for; and

Whereas, The salaries paid to public officers and employes constitute an appreciable part of the cost of government; and

Whereas, Industry and business has been forced to reduce salaries and wages in order to continue operation and provide employment; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That it is the sense of the General Assembly that the salaries, compensation and emoluments of office of all public officers and employes of the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the State Government, should be reduced, and that those agencies and officers of government charged with the fixing of salaries and compensation of public employes should reduce such salaries and compensation in accordance with the provisions of this resolution;

Resolved, That all public officers of the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the State Government be urged to agree voluntarily to accept reductions in their salaries, compensation and emoluments of office and return the same to the government or permit it to retain, the percentage of such salaries, compensation and emoluments of office as is provided for by this resolution;

[Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly that such reductions in salaries, compensation and emoluments of office should be not less than fifteen per cent. of the annual compensation, provided however, that no salary or compensation now in excess of $1500.00 shall be reduced below such amount.

Be It Further Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly, that if, for the protection of existing retirement rights, the salaries of State officers and employes are continued as at present, and in addition to the deductions made therefrom for payment into the State Employes' Retirement Fund, a further deduction is voluntarily made on pay rolls equal to the above percentage for payment into the General Fund or into any special fund created and appropriated under any Act of Assembly for unemployment relief purposes, the spirit of this resolution shall be deemed to have been complied with:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Commonwealth be directed to forward a copy of this resolution to each member of the Executive Board of the State Government, to the Auditor General, State Treasurer, the heads of the several departments, and of the several independent administrative boards and commissions and to each of the Judges of the Commonwealth and to the officers and members of the State Legislature.]

Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly that such reductions in salaries, compensation and emoluments of office should be in accordance with the following standards:

(a) Salaries, compensation and emoluments amounting to $750 and less per annum should not be reduced.

(b) All salaries, compensation and emoluments amounting to more than $750 per annum should be reduced by an amount equal to 20% of the difference in amount between the present salary, compensation or emolument and the sum of $750.

(c) In the case of per diem compensation, such compensation amounting to $2 per day and less should not be reduced; and such compensation amounting to more than $2 per day should be reduced by an amount equal to 20% of the difference in amount between the present per diem compensation and the sum of $2.

(d) The whole amount of the compensation of the members of the General Assembly, not already paid over should be reduced by 20%.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly that such reductions should become effective as of the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, with the exception of those effecting the compensation of the members, officers and employes of the General Assembly which should apply to all such compensation, that has not heretofore been paid.

Resolved, That in order that the General Assembly, may ascertain the amount of money which can be saved by the foregoing reductions the Auditor General be directed to forward a copy of this resolution upon its final passage to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, State Treasurer and Secretary of Internal Affairs, to each member of the Executive Board of the State Government, to the heads of the several departments and of the several administrative boards and commissions, to each of the judges learned in the law of the Commonwealth, and to the officers and members of the General Assembly, with the request that all persons affected thereby notify the Auditor General, in writing, within two weeks of such request of the acceptance of the provisions hereof and that requisitions of salary for such persons be drawn at the reduced rates, after the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, in the case of members of the executive and judicial branches of the government, and forthwith in the case of members and attaches of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That this resolution is intended to be effective upon final passage.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, and members of the Senate: If Governor Pinchot has read my Bill regulating utilities and understands what he has read, his remarks concerning it are not as frank and accurate as one would expect from a Governor, and particularly from one who poses as the guardian of the people.

He says my Bill does not contain provisions authorizing the Commission to investigate and pass upon proposed contracts between Pennsylvania public service companies and holding companies or affiliated interests.

He is mistaken.

It does.

Beginning on page 18 and running on for several pages, anyone who wants to read it will find that my Bill contains elaborate provisions in this regard, which not only cover proposed contracts, but even existing contracts.

He gives the impression that my Bill does not contain provisions conferring upon the Commission the right to control and regulate increases in rates or putting the burden upon the public service companies to justify proposed increases.

He is mistaken.

It does.

Beginning at the bottom of page 7 and running over to page 8 of my Bill, will be found a provision for this purpose, which is again taken up on page 25 of the Bill.

These provisions confer ample power upon the Commission to suspend any rate pending investigation, to investigate the rate, and, if it disapproves of the rate, to stop it from going into effect.

It also contains ample provisions for protecting the ratepayers from any rate which has gone into effect to the extent to which it may subsequently be disapproved by the Commission.

These latter provisions guarantee to the ratepayer the return of any part of the rate which he may have paid and which is thereafter disapproved by the Commission.

On page 27 will be found a provision that squarely places the burden of proof on the public service company to show that any increase of rate is just and reasonable.

He intimates that my Bill does not contain provisions requiring the Commission to pass upon and approve issues of securities.

He is mistaken.

It does.

Beginning on page 10, my Bill contains elaborate provisions on the subject of securities.

It forbids the issuance of securities until approved by the Commission.

While the Bill anticipates that securities allowed by law shall be approved by the Commission, it particularly provides that such approval can not be given unless the Commission finds that the issuance of the securities is reasonably necessary to carry out the lawful purpose or purposes in question, and, as will be seen at page 17 of the Bill, it gives the Commission full power to make such inquiry and investigation and to hold such hearings as it may think proper in passing upon applications for the issuance of securities.

Securities which are payable in less than twelve months are excepted from some of the provisions of my Bill, but this is true of the utilities bills in most of the States.

The Bill submitted by the Governor does the same thing.

The exception is inserted because such short term issues are usually made in comparatively small amounts to cover emergencies where quick action is required.

My Bill requires all such issues of securities to be reported to the Commisison and forbids their refunding by long term securities without the approval of the Commission.

The Governor says that the provisions of my Bill as to depreciation accounts are "vague and unsatisfactory."

My Bill strengthens the existing law by requiring every public service company to keep such character of accounts as shall be prescribed by the Commission and to carry a proper depreciation account, and to abide by all the regulations and orders of the Commission in that regard.

This is much better than trying to set up any particular formula for depreciation accounts to apply to innumberable different sets of circumstances.

These provisions are certainly not vague and, I am sure, they will not prove unsatisfactory either to the public or to the business world.

I presented this Bill in an endeavor to remedy the ills which have appeared in utility operation in Pennsylvania and elsewhere. A great many of its provisions embrace the suggestions made through a report unanimously adopted by the present Public Service Commission and presented to the Utility Committee of which I am Chairman.

I believe that my Bill is a step in the right direction, further empowering the Public Service Commission to directly apply those regulatory measures to utility operations which will be of real benefit to the public.

The Bill authorizes and empowers the Public Service Commission, and eventually the Courts of the Commonwealth,

1. To regulate the issuance of securities.

2. To suspend proposed changes in rates pending investigation as to their propriety.

3. To grant reparations to consumers in connection with changes of rates to the extent these rates may be disapproved by the Commission.

4. To pass upon and approve or disapprove transactions and contracts between public service companies, holding companies and their affiliated interests.

5. To ascertain definitely the voting capital stock ownership of public service companies.

It also contains provisions for,

6. Requiring such companies to keep proper and reasonable depreciation accounts.

7. Imposing additional penalties for failure to carry out provisions of the Act by the officers of public service companies, and

8. Fixing those fees to be paid to the Commission in connection with the application for the approval of security issues, etc.

In drafting this legislation, my underlying thought constantly has been that public service companies are created, as their name implies, to furnish service to the public; that private capital is required to finance and support such companies to furnish that public service; that the public to which that service is furnished shold pay a just rate or charge for it; and that these co-related factors should be regulated by some properly constituted tribunal eventually and finally supervised by our Courts.

So long as there is a public, it will need service and some company or association will be required to furnish it. The public, will, I feel, gladly pay a fair and just rate for that service, which rate, of course, must support the company or association anl pay a reasonable return upon the capital invested.

Since we have the public and it requires the service, and capital is not only today, but every day, constantly seeking safe investments with a fair return, I can see no reason why utility securities, providently and properly issued, through proper regulation, assured of a just return based upon a fair and just rate which guarantees a full and complete service to the public, all of which is regulated by a conscientious Public Service Commission and eventually supervised by our courts, should not become as sound as a Government bond, with the public service which that security supports as full and complete as the public desires, all founded upon a fair rate.

This is the genuine and harmonious structure which I wish to see reared in Pennsylvania, and this is the plan and endeavor of my legislation.

Now the Governor, at the last moment and when the Legislature is almost ready to adjourn, unfairly and by inaccurate statements and inuendoes attacks by Bill and proposes other legislation on this subject.

He gives as a reason for his delay in presenting his legislation that he has been so busy for the last few months that he had not time to attend to that which he has heretofore termed a robbery of the people—a constant utility monster gnawing at their pursestrings.

With what has he been so busy? Constant trekking to Washington and sleeping soundly there in an endeavor to become Democrat and ascertain whether he would or could be accepted by the new Roosevelt, now in power.

One of the greatest troubles with our Governor is that he has an incurable Roosevelt complex. When Theodore was a Republican, Pinchot was a Republican; when Theodore was a bull-mooser he was a bull-mooser; when Franklin became a successful Democrat he wants to be a Democrat; but as for help and policies for the benefit of the people of Pennsylvania, these he allows to lag and suffer, while with campaign hat atilt and arms akimbo he tries debonairly to squeeze in under the Roosevelt tent.

To us in Pennsylvania, however, it looks as though, while Franklin might be willing, practical Farley has said nay, for apparently it has been concluded in Washington that if he cannot deliver here, he cannot there.

But since we are treating of this utility question, what has the Governor done concerning it?

I'll tell you what he has done. Through the power of his patronage as Governor, in 1931 he killed my proposed utility legislation and deprived the people of the benefit of its remedies for the ensuing period of two years.

In 1931 the Governor had a Bill on utilities introduced and passed by the House of Representatives which was controlled through patronage by him. This Bill was known as the Fair Rate Bill and was supposed to be a perfect piece of legislation. When this Bill reached the Senate, he offered 232 amendments and a former Chief Justice of the highest Court in the State said that this Bill was so fraught with unconstitutionalities that it would not be sustained in the Courts. That was some accomplishment for the benefit of the people of Pennsylvania.

Now, in 1933, a year of devastating depression, when prices of everything are terribly and distressingly reduced, he says that the Public Service Commission appointed by him has reduced rates. I do not know whether this statement is intended for humor or sarcasm, but as a joke it will receive, as it deserves, but a wry smile from the people of our State.

One of the strongest factors favoring and forcing the election of President Roosevelt was that he would have the united support of Party associates in both House of Congress and with that support he would be able to work real accomplishment for the country. This, to the great detriment of the people of Pennsylvania, Governor Pinchot has never striven to have or acquire.

He seems to forget, or if not forgetting, overlook, the fact that the members of the Senate and House are just as deeply interested in the welfare of Pennsylvania and its people as he is, just as loyal to their State, and perhaps of much longer standing in that loyalty than he is, that there is no adoption in their case but it is bred in the bone; that they are charged with, recognize and accept the same responsibilities as he does; that they have their own ideas and opinions just as he has his regarding the State, its affairs and benefits for its people; that "in the multitude of counsellors there is safety" and that the judgment of some of these counsellors elected by the people may be as good as his. He must not forget he is not always infallible and right, and we, the members of the Senate and House venal and wrong. The people whom we represent, do not consider him their guardian angel, and think of us, their representatives, as arrant tricksters, purely on his statements, when those statements are transparent and recognized as made solely for the purpose of establishing a political organization for his own benefit, with no accompanying accomplishments for the benefit of the people of Pennsylvania.

No Governor since Curtin, in Civil War days, has had the opportunity for real good which Governor Pinchot has had in this State in recent years, and had he cooperated with the members of the Senate and House he could have accomplished much. But what has he done, save criticize and castigate them? If this has been of any benefit to Pennsylvania, I fail to see its effect.

When a man begins to palaver about his voice being the voice of the people and that he does not care what those who are associated with him think of him and his charges, it is a pretty fair sign that he is beginning himself to doubt the power of his voice. He knows that other people recognize the absence of its power, though he will not admit it; that he does care what others think about him and he wants his associates and the world at large to consider him, as they once did, a vital force. I fear Governor Pinchot has gone back—at least he has gone back to an old issue which is being and will be properly solved and remedied by the Legislature—as a ventriloquist he has been unfrocked and discovered; therefore, it must rather clearly appear that he has run out of cant and rant and real issues, and for the want of them is endeavoring to revive an old one, with the thought that it could be used as a vehicle for the further abuse and attack upon members of the Legislature—and in that he has failed, and knows it.

TRANSMITTING REPORT OF COMMISSION ON COMPENSATION FOR INDUSTRIAL DISEASE

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 20, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have long been convinced of the need for adequate legislation to provide compensation for occupational diseases in Pennsylvania. That need becomes increasingly urgent as new industrial processes, involving new health hazards, are developed. The problem is one which involves separate rights of employers and employes as well as insurance companies, and requires a careful, impartial, and scientific study.

To this end in September, 1932, I appointed a Commission of ten members. The members were chosen because of their special expert knowledge and fitness to represent the different interests which would be affected by such legislation.

This Commission has made a comprehensive survey of occupational disease hazards. Its report, as herewith presented, deserves detailed and careful study.

From the data presented by this Commission, it is possible to frame legislation that will be fair and equitable to all concerned. It is my earnest hope that the Legislature may act accordingly.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE POSTPONED

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 805 (House Bill No. 92), bill on final passage postponed, entitled:

An Act permitting fishing on Sunday with one rod and two hooks in bounday streams and fixing penalties.

Mr. HARVEY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, this bill, House Bill No. 92, as it came from the House permitted fishing all over the Commonwealth on Sundays. Personally I would not vote for such a bill; I do not think many of the members of this Senate would; but the Committee on Game and Fisheries have made a good bill out of a bad bill, and we have amended this bill so that its own sponsor, probably, would hardly recognize it. Instead of permitting fishing all over the State on Sundays, it now permits fishing, with one rod and two hooks, in the boundary streams of the Commonwealth,—which, boiled down, means it allows fishing in the Delaware River on Sunday, by hook and line.

I am sure you will all agree with me that as long as the State of New Jersey has this privilege of fishing in the Delaware River on Sunday, and fishermen from that State are ready to row up and down the river, and sit in the sun and watch a cork, and catch no fish, there is no reason why the residents of Pennsylvania should not be permitted to have the same privilege. It will not hurt the fish; it will not hurt the river; it will not hurt the fishermen; it will not hurt the Commonwealth; it will not hurt even the church people.

There is nothing very strenuous about fishing; what our people, who reside along or near the Delaware River, want is the privilege of going out in the open air and sitting in a boat and getting some fresh air and sunshine; and I ask the Senate to go along with me and vote for this bill as amended, and permit Sunday fishing in the Delaware River.

We help stock the Delaware River, either directly or indirectly; if we put fish in any tributary stream of the Delaware River, they naturally find their way to that body, and the New Jersey fishermen are permitted to catch them on Sunday, but the Pennsylvania fishermen are not. I earnestly and seriously ask that the members of this body support this bill, for the benefit of the people who live on or near the Delaware River.

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I shall be delighted.

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I understand the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to say this is meant for fisherman in the Delaware River?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that is as I understand it.

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, is not that class legislation?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not think so,—not the way the bill is worded. If you can find any other boundary streams of Pennsylvania, you will be able to fish in them; or if you cannot find any, if you create some you will be allowed to fish in them. There is no class legislation in that.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1255 (House Bill No. 1205), entitled:

An Act exempting household furniture and household goods leased, hired or conditionally sold from levy and sale on execution or distress for rent under certain conditions.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, this is House Bill No. 1255, Senate Bill No. 1205.

The PRESIDENT. It is the other way around,—House Bill No. 1205, Senate Bill No. 1255.

Mr. SALUS. Well, Mr. President, the bill is the other way around, too; and I am sure I will prove to you that the bill is cockeyed. There has not been a piece of legislation in Harrisburg from the beginning of this session where there has been a more determined, more vicious, more offensive and more disgusting lobby than there has been on this piece of legislation. It is a piece of legislation that is fostered by the instalment men of Pennsylvania. These instalment men, for some months past, have had traveling throughout the State of Pennsylvania, in every county, a number of men, or women, as the case may be, paid to go among the various welfare people of the particular county to make their plea that this is welfare legislation. There has never been a piece of welfare legislation on the floor of this Senate that has not received my 100 percent support,—so much so, I am now on the outside of the Republican Organization, on which I, for twenty-five years, have been a member—the Republican Organization of Philadelphia.

I am disgusted with them because I have almost put down my life's blood on emergency legislation, and for the protection of the people of this Commonwealth. I am for those who need relief,—I am for those who need relief if it not only costs me my position in politics but if it costs me the life that God Almighty gave me. I am willing to die for the relief of the poor of Pennsylvania. And you cannot point to a piece of legislation introduced on the floor of this Senate, or in the House, which had to do with the welfare of children or with relief work that I have not taken an active hand in; nor have I ever opposed a piece of fair legislation for the working man of Pennsylvania; and I have never been a candidate for public office in which I have not received one hundred percent support from every union and organization of working men in Pennsylvania.

My particular aversion to this bill is based on the fact that in the campaign for its passage is was urged throughout the State of Pennsylvania as a relief measure. It is no relief measure; it is a proposition to protect the ghouls,—the ghouls who have ruined, for many years past, the happy homes of the working men of Pennsylvania,—the instalment men, who, in the daytime, while the working man is at work, come along with their high-power methods of salesmanship, going from door to door, and inveigle the housewife to buy many things that her husband cannot pay for—will not be able to pay for; and their list includes almost everything from the automobile, the radio, the washing machine, to the electric refrigerator,—everything imaginable is loaded in the home by these instalment ghouls, who would make you believe that this is welfare legislation.

Let me show you how it is welfare legislation, and how much they are interested in the poor of Pennsylvania or anywhere else: "written notice that such household furniture or household goods, specifically describing the same, have been leased or hired or conditionally sold to any such person shall be given to the landlord or his agent at the time the said household furniture or household goods are placed upon the demised premises or within five days thereafter, and such notice shall contain a statement of the respective amounts due to the lessor or conditional vendor on each of the articles named therein, and when so given shall be effective as to such landlord and any future owner or owners of said premises."

Now, let me show you how far they are going to protect the instalment furniture of theirs. If you own a house and you get notice that there is instalment furniture in the place, then somebody else comes along and buys the house, and he gets the lease, and the second holder does not get notice, that second holder has got to pay the instalment man for the furniture he did not buy, if anything happens to the furniture. And it not only binds the present owner, but any future owner; and the instalment man make very, very good effort to so protect himself that if he does not hook up the present owner of the real estate, somebody else comes along, and does not know there is a lot of bum furniture in there,—and he makes the new owner pay for it.

"Well," somebody may say, "That is a good thing for the tenant." But the bill goes on to say, "Nothing herein contained shall prevent the landlord or his agent from levying upon and selling on execution or distress for rent any right or interest of the bailment lessee or conditional vendee under such bailment lease or contract of conditional sale, subject to the rights therein of the bailment lessor or conditional vendor."

Now you see how good-hearted he is, how generous he is; and you will be interested to know how his agents went through Pennsylvania advocating that this was welfare legislation. It is not welfare legislation; this is the most hypocritical piece of legislation that was ever on the floor of this Senate. What do they say in that last paragraph I read? They say, "Mr. Landlord, you can levy on and sell any portion of the furniture that this poor tenant has paid for, but you cannot sell ours. If the tenant has paid $150.00 on a thousand dollar bill, or a five hundred bill, Mr. Landlord, you can sell his $150.00 worth, but our $850.00 worth of furniture is on hallowed ground, protected by the laws of Pennsylvania; because we, the instalment men, in the innocence of our hearts and through the dictates of God Almighty, are protecting the poor in this time of distress."

They are "protecting the poor" by getting for themselves the right to deplete the poor people's homes at any time they see fit. If this is welfare legislation, it is in the guise of Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I agree with the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, that this is not welfare legislation; if it were, I would cheerfully vote for this bill; but this bill bears evidence on its face that it is for one purpose only, and that is, to protect the interests of a special interest that desires protection. To my mind there is no chapter in the law of Pennsylvania that is more unfair and, I believe, more unconstitutional than the series of acts which have been passed from time to time exemtping certain property from distress for rent. Undoubtedly, the first acts of this character were humanitarian in their purpose. The first act, I believe, was the act which exempted the sewing machine,—over fifty yeares ago, before the age of machinery; and that act was passed on the theory of protecting the poor seamstress in her means of making a livelihood; and possibly some of the other acts of that early period in our history were of a like intent; but for years in every session of the Legislature, one interest after another has come before the Legislature of Pennsylvania asking for exemption for some particular purpose. During the Session of 1929 one bill after another, as I recall, was introduced in the House of Representatives,—and they were all soundly defeated, —each bill representing the efforts of some particular manufacturer to save his particular product from distress for rent; and now we have this bill brought into being by the instalment houses, who are letting out goods under an instalment contract, in order that they may be protected. The landlord may be protected, or the tenant may be protected from the landlord, but the tenant has no protection whatever from the instalment house.

Now, possibly the time has come in Pennsylvania, or may come, when the old common law rule of the right to distrain for rent should be abandoned; but I submit, Mr. President, it should not be done in this way. If we are going to take away from the landlord his right to distrain goods on the property, I submit that it should be done by a uniform and general law exempting all classes of property, or, at least, all property within a specific class; but this bill does not attempt any such thing, it refers to certain property, it is class legislation. I believe if the Legislature of Pennsylvania would move forward, it would wipe off all these acts which we have in the way of class legislation, exempting one article or another article from distress for rent, and that we should not continue this policy of class legislation representing simply the wishes of some particular dealers or some particular manufacturers.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this bill ,instead of being styled an act exempting household furniture from distress for rent, should be named a bill to continue the depression. I do not believe there is any other one custom among our people in this country that has helped more to bring on the depression than the custom, or abuse of the custom, of buying and selling goods on instalments. I do not see one Senator here on this floor who sees fit to stand on his feet and defend this bill. I agree with the Senators who have already spoken, that it is class legislation, a new method of collecting debts, a protection for special interests; and in order that we, as members of this body, may not be considered by the people of this Commonwealth to be bought and sold.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. PRESIDENT. I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General for decent burial.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

RULES COMMITTEE:
GROVER C. TALBOT,
A. J. WHITE HUTTON,
T. B. WILSON,
WILSON G. SARIG.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. J. J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Rules Committee.

The SPEAKER. Will the Chairman of the Rules Committee, the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUTTON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. J. J. KANE. Will the Chairman of the Rules Committee inform the House whether or not the recommendation submitted provides in it an order of business for resolutions for the discharge of committees from further consideration of bills?

Mr. HUTTON. It does not.

Mr. J. J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the Chairman of the Rules Committee, why it does not.

Mr. HUTTON. We did not consider it necessary at this time, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. J. J. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there are some very important bills in the hands of committees and have been in the hands of committees since the opening of this session. They are bills dealing with home rule, bills dealing with social legislation, bills dealing with worthwhile relief for taxpayers, bills dealing with the regulation of public utilities, and bills beneficial to labor.

Last week I raised no objection to the orders of the day because I felt that there was a heavy calendar. I thought in fairness to the membership of this House, who as a result of that heavy calendar, were compelled to work long hours, that we should agree to the rules as submitted, but I can see no reason why the same procedure is now being presented to this House and we are asked to agree in it. In my opinion it is forcibly gagging the members of this House who have bills in committees, which they sponsored in good faith, in the interest of their constituents.

If the people of Pennsylvania are to have representative government, then I say that the representatives whom they have sent here should have at least an opportunity of moving to discharge committees as provided for under House Rule No. 40.

I realize that we are drawing toward the conclusion of the session, but it is not any fault of the members who desire to move to discharge committees on these bills that this delay is necessary. These committees have had these bills long enough to study them; they have had them long enough to make some recommendation on them.

In view of these facts I ask the membership of this House to nonconcur in the recommendations of the Rules Committee, because, in my opinion, it means nothing less than the gagging of the liberal members of this House from their opportunities of attempting to discharge committees from further consideration of liberal, social and labor legislation.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the controlling reason for submitting the resolution that has been submitted eliminating at this time resolutions or motions to discharge committees from further consideration of bills, was the hope of the committee that there might be an adjournment this week. If so the discharge of committees will certainly be absolutely futile. On the other hand, this evening it has been called to the attention of myself and other members of the committee that at the session probably tomorrow the Rules Committee will consider favorably the giving of a half an hour for motions to discharge committees. Although I can't speak for the Committee, it is likely that that matter will come up for consideration by the Rules Committee tomorrow morning. Therefore, I ask you to adopt the resolution pertaining to the order of the day as it has been submitted by the Rules Committee.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I offer the following amendment to the resolution submitted by the Rules Committee.

The amendment was read by the clerk as follows:

Amend the resolution of the Rules Committee so as to read:

"Excepting that at the hour of 11 P. M., Monday, April 24, 1933, it shall become a special order of business of the House to consider a motion that the Committee on Ways and Means be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 1173, 'An act entitled an act imposing a tax upon the net income of persons resident in the Commonwealth, providing a method for the collection and payment of such tax, and directing the disbursement of all proceeds of such tax to emergency relief funds and to the school districts in relief of local property taxes,' which bill was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means on February 28, 1933, and has been in the hands of said Committee for a period of more than ten days."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in view of the fact that for the last week the Rules Committee has at the beginning of every session brought in orders of the day, the adoption of which has prevented the consideration of anything except that which was included therein and which carefully excluded from the orders of the day any time for motions to discharge committees from further consideration of bills, I offer this amendment. While it is to be hoped that this session is not going to last all summer, it is very important that some of these motions should be considered now. The longer we put it off the less chance there is of getting a bill passed, even if the committee should be discharged.

Those of us who are interested in some of these measures, and many members of the House are interested in a number of these measures, feel that it is time that the House should be given a chance to vote and say whether or not we can have a committee discharged from further consideration of some of these important bills. The only way we can do that, due to the procedure followed last week, is to offer an amendment to the report of the Rules Committee which is what I have done here on this occasion.

The amendment offered by me proposes that an exception be made in the Committee resolution to the effect that at 11.00 o'clock P. M. there shall be a special order of business to consider a motion to discharge the Committee on Ways and Means from further consideration of House Bill No. 1173 which is an income tax bill. We feel that this bill is very important. We are told that it is impossible to raise enough money for the relief of the unemployment situation and to keep the schools open, and this bill is a method of doing that very thing. Incidentally, the bill is not sponsored by myself. It is a bill in which the members of the House are very much interested and therefore I ask you to vote for the amendment to the report of the Committee on Rules.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, will state his point of order.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the amendment offered, as I understand it, is to make a special order of business at 11.00 o'clock to night a motion to discharge the committee on Ways and Means from further consideration of House Bill No. 1173. Is that correct?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. TURNER. The report of the Committee on Rules is to provide the proceudre and an order of business for the day. The amendment, therefore, would not be in order as an amendment to the order of the day should provide a place on the order of the day for motions to discharge committees from further consideration of bills.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that the amendment is in order because the amendment states 11.00 o'clock as the time for the consideration of motions to discharge committees, if it is adopted.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hoopes and Mr. Gallagher.

Mrs. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll call was verified and was as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. J. J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment to the resolution of the Rules Committee.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend the resolution of the Rules Committee so as to read: "Excepting that at the hour of 1.40 A. M. or as soon after that hour as possible, it shall become a special order of business of the House to consider a motion that the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 977, 'An Act relating to limited dividend reconstruction corporations defining and providing for the formation of such corporation for the purpose of reconstructing slum areas extending to such corporations certain existing laws relating generally to corporations of the second class,' which bill was referred to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation on February 15, 1933, and has been in the hands of that Committee for a period of more than ten days."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is another one of those bills in which a large number of the members of this House are very much interested, and this is the only way that we can get a chance to get a vote to discharge the committee from further consideration, therefore, this amendemnt to the report of the Committee on Rules is offered. I trust you will vote aye in favor of this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hoopes and Mr. Harmuth.

Mr. WELSH. Mr. Speaker, on account of so much confusion around us here during the roll call I ask that the roll be verified.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. J. J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. J. J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, will the votes be recorded of those who answer as well as those who do not answer?

The SPEAKER. The recording clerk records only those who vote.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to announce that the report of the Committee on Conference on House Bill No. 1374 is the same as the previous report, therefore, the members will find on their desks Printers' No. 977 as the report of the committee on conference on House Bill No. 1374.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report?

Mr. MUMFORD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have before us tonight House Bill No. 1374. The provisions of this bill are that the directors may cut the teachers' salaries ten per cent themselves and then anything above that, or below that, they must have the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. I know that a great many of you would like to have in that bill the provisions that any cut below the ten per cent. should be approved by the Court of Common Pleas. That is out of the bill and we must forget it, as I see it. The Senate has taken that out and we vote tonight on whether we will approve House Bill No. 1374 or not approve it.

Now, if we do not approve House Bill No. 1374, we have the Edmonds Act which is a salary raiser and under which there will be an increment in the salary of teachers, and I think that everyone agrees that the Edmonds Act it not suitable in a depression. It was all right when prices were rising and everything was prosperous and everyone had money, but the Edmonds Act I don't think anyone wants now. A vote for House Bill No. 1374 means that you want to allow the directors to cut the teachers' salaries, and cut them if necessary above ten per cent., with the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. A vote "no" means simply to continue the Edmonds Act, or, in other words, that the teachers will have the increments in their salaries. You have your choice, either to give to the directors the power to cut salaries, or, on the other hand a vote "no" will mean that the teachers' salaries will be put up under the Edmonds Act under which they will be operating. I beg of you to vote for House Bill No. 1374. We must have it. Thank you.

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I hate to take your time to express myself on this conference report, but in the light of it I feel that I must disagree with the statements of the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Mumford, I feel that I must disagree with our colleague from Warren County, Mr. Mumford, in that he says that a vote against the report of the committee on conference would be to keep the Edmonds Act in its entirety. I don't feel that the Senate has any prerogatives over those exercised by this House. Upon two occasions this House has demonstated its wish and desire with reference to the provisions of House Bill No. 1374, in particular that portion of it which refers to the source to which we must go for our approval, or that the school boards should go for their approval to set aside further provisions of the Edmonds Act.

It seems to me that there are just three alternatives before us. We will either have to impose further taxes on real estate, or have a shortening of the session or a closing of the schools for a portion of the term in the rural sections, or to have this further suspension of the provisions of the Edmonds Act.

I have talked to the Courts in Bucks County on Friday last and both of our judges are entirely in accord with the though of having this matter left to them. They are sympathetic, they understand the financial situation in the several districts throughout the county, they are accessible, and in so far as Bucks County is concerned the courts there are entirely in accord with having this matter left in their hands. I shall personally vote against the adoption of the report of the conference committee at this time.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill, as I understand it, in its present form, has twice been defeated in this House. I wonder how many lives this bill has on the floor of the House. The objectionable feature in this bill is still there and that is leaving the fixing of these teachers salaries up to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. It may be that all of the members of the House understand that the bill is in the form which I describe. My only purpose in getting on my feet is to call the attention of the members to the fact that the bill is in such form. I hope you will vote to defeat it.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when this bill was before this House for the first time about three weeks ago I spoke against the bill and voted against it, because I believed that it would be possible for us to get a better bill. However, as the situation now stands, the question is whether House Bill No. 1374 shall be passed or shall be defeated. If we defeat this bill what then; what is the alternative? Has there been any alternative brought forward to remedy this situation?

I fear, and I know, during the last three weeks the voluntary cut of teachers has spread through certain parts of the state like wildfire. School directors have gone to school teachers and have said "What is the least that you will take for teaching next year" and the poor teacher says perhaps "one hundred dollars a month." Then the directors say: "Well I have a teacher that will take your place at seventy-five dollars a month." What is the poor teacher going to do? In order not to lose her position she says "All right, I will accept seventy-five dollars a month," and this is considered all over the State as a voluntary act. In fact it is nothing of the kind; it is really a cut under extortion, it is a cut under duress. In order to remedy that situation I feel that we can do nothing better for the teachers of Pennsylvania, as well as for the boys and girls of Pennsylvania, than to support the bill in its present form.

The Cordier Bill, which provides for a five million dollar loan from the Motor Fund for school purposes, has passed this House and I understand that it is reasonably sure that it will pass the Senate and I think it will be signed by the Governor. At least that is the understanding. With that five million dollars then as a bottom for House Bill No. 1374 the teachers will at least have some protection. They will be protected and I say the one remedy effected in this bill is that clause which prohibits the voluntary cut.

I would hate to think of what would happen all over the State of Pennsylvania if this bill is defeated. If you defeat this bill tonight it will mean that practically every school district in Pennsylvania will be thrown open to that voluntary cut, and the teachers of Pennsylvania will have no recourse whatsoever.

There is nothing in the Edmonds Act that prevents that socalled "voluntary cut." This bill at least gives them some protection. When any school board comes in to the Superintendent of Public Instruction and asks for a further cut, the five million dollars in the revolving fund can be used to take the place of a further cut.

I have been assured several times by the Superintendent of Public Instruction that he will do all in his power, especially in the case of fourth class districts where the minimum salary is $100.00 and where a ten per cent. cut would cut them to seven hundred and twenty dollars per year, that he will do all in his power to prevent any further cut beyond the ten per cent.

On the other hand, defeat this bill and the teachers will have no protection whatever, and it will mean that the entire state will be thrown open to the voluntary cut and that there is nothing to stop it. It is spreading now like wildfire in many parts of the state and I feel at least for affording some protection to these poorly paid teachers we must support this bill or place them at the mercy of the voluntary cut which is now spreading over the state. I, therefore, ask you to vote for this bill as the lesser of two evils which confront us.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, tonight I find myself as in fact my colleague, Mr. Perry, found himself a few days ago in serving his first term he came here and determined that as serving his first term I would have nothing to say in this House, but I am going to diverge from that rule which I made when I was sworn in and I do so because of the fact that it has been my pleasure and privilege to have served as a conferee of the House with the Senate upon this exceedingly important bill.

I am not going to take much of your time except to tell you and bring to you, if I may, the attitude of the conferees that has labored with this bill as I doubt whether few conferences have labored with other bills in this session, and that conference believed, and I believe that I speak for them, that this is the best possible legislation that can be brought to the school districts of Pennsylvania. I agree with my colleague, Mr. Sarig, and I want to tell you, those of you who look to the interest of the school teachers throughout the State, this bill curbs the cut that school teachers may receive. It states by adjective law what the school districts may cut and what they may take away from the school teachers of this State. Vote down this bill and then the school boards of the districts can cut the teachers salaries much more severely than they can with this bill enacted into law.

So I ask, if you are thinking of the school teachers, to support them by establishing a fixed point beyond which the school board and the district dare not go. Then, again, if you are thinking of the school board itself, this bill allows the school board to put its own financial house in order and allows them to make their own final adjustments.

If we get the five million dollars provided for by another bill in this House then this bill becomes null. Certainly we should place in the hands of the school districts the machinery to put their house in order in the event that the five million dollars is not obtained.

Therefore, on behalf of the conferees I ask in the interest of the public schools of this state that you vote favorably upon this bill.

Mr. LOSE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House it seems to me that in this House there is some misunderstanding as to the part that our revenue and financial officers have to do with the school districts when they ask for a greater reduction in teachers' salaries than ten percent. It is not the State Council of Education but the State Superintendent of Public Instruction in whose offices are all the facts and figures necessary to determine on giving the school districts permission to make the increase if he thinks that to be necessary. It can be done much more promptly there and much more fairly there than in the Courts, it seems to me. Thousands of people are watching and waiting to have this bill passed. In my own county more than half of the school directors are waiting for the passage of this bill before making their contracts with teachers for the next year. So we see how imperative it is to pass this bill as it is now.

Mr. LENAHAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arise at this time to protest against the passage of this bill because the people of my district are one hundred percent against it.

I realized when I came to the legislative body of this House that laws are being enacted for the purpose of bringing about economy, but I fail to see that in the passage of this law we can bring about that purpose in this legislature by cutting salaries or by passing any law that will have for its purpose the cutting of teachers' salaries in any district throughout the confines of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I believe that if this bill were enacted into law it would impose upon the school directorate of many districts an arbitrary power that would enable them to go either to the Court of Common pleas, civil session, or to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Therefore, it is in the interest of the people of my constituency that I arise in protest of a law which I have been on many occasions quoted as voting for when I arise in the hall of this House, and say to the members comprising this Legislature that I ask your unanimous vote in opposition to any bill that might confront the people of this House which has for its purpose the cutting of teachers' salaries. The teachers of the State of Pennsylvania, in public and in private schools have labored too long in the interest of humanity. They have been underpaid for such a period of time that it is incumbent upon the Legislature at this time to arise in protest against any bill which has for its purpose the cutting of teachers' wages at this present time.

Now, it is under the provisions of this act that the teachers' salaries may be curtailed and they may start from the point of zero and run on indefinitely, and yet if we were to consider the low wage with which our teachers have been paid and if we could lay aside those ulterior motives that might prompt us not to vote for the passage of this bill, we can readily see, members of this House, what a detriment and what a hardship that would work upon the teachers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Oh, yes, members of this Legislature, the proponents of this bill will argue and perhaps argue well that unless this bill is enacted into law perhaps the school districts of our Commonwealth may be closed. I say in the sense of decency, in the sense of security, the members of this House, the Legislature, are not going to stand idly by and see the school districts of our Commonwealth closed, because I freely say to the members of this Legislature that the school districts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are going to remain open regardless of the enactment into law of this piece of legislation.

I ask, and I sincerely ask, the members of this House to vote down this legislation.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it would seem from what has been said on this bill tonight that there is a great difference of opinion as to just what it does mean.

One of the speakers has informed us that failure to pass this bill will mean a continuation of the operation of the Edmonds act in regard to teachers' salaries.

Another speaker has warned us that if this bill passes it will mean a reduction of the salaries of the teachers, which they will have to take voluntarily in order to engage in their profession.

I know of no teacher who is opposed to taking a reduction of salary at this time, and I do not believe it would be more detrimental to public education in this State for a teacher to take a voluntary reduction than to take a reduction as provided by the terms of this bill, for by the terms of this bill if a school district is unable to come to the ninety per cent of the requirements of the present salaries paid its teachers then the State Superintendent of Public Instruction steps in and becomes an absolute dictator.

In the Philadelphia Record of yesterday I read a quotation attributed to our State Superintendent of Public Instruction in which he is quoted as having said that the teachers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are rapidly falling into line with this reduction in salaries if this bill were enacted into law.

We know that through the press and by means of the radio every strategic point in the State of Pennsylvania is being reached. It is the work of certain political leaders of the State to array the assemblymen from the city districts against the members from the country districts.

In my district, and I claim I represent a district composed of the finest citizens in America they are appealing to me to ask these representatives in this House from the larger cities not to array themselves against the country districts and the small towns in the rural districts and enact this legislation.

By the very terms of this bill not only would the Superintendent of Public Instruction have authority and power to reduce salaries but also he would have the power to raise taxes. He could set aside by the terms of this bill any law that we may now have. It is for this reason, this deviation from established practices and laws governing our schools and giving the State Superintendent of Public Instruction an absolute dictatorship over our schools for a period of two years, that the citizens of my district protest against the bill, and I ask you, therefore, to vote it down again.

Mr. BECHTEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. SARIG.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARIG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BECHTEL. Did I understand the gentleman to convey in the talk which he gave the House that the school directors would cancel the contracts of teachers and then employ them at a very much decreased rate of salary?

Mr. SARIG. I did, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BECHTEL. Would you say that is true in the face of the provisions of the Edmonds law, that they could hire them at a lower salary than it is stated they should receive?

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I would say that it has been done in our county under the provisions of the Edmonds law as it now stands in its entirety.

Mr. BECHTEL. Under what section of the Edmonds Act, may I ask, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. SARIG. There is no section under the Edmonds law, Mr. Speaker, that guarantees a teacher against a voluntary reduction.

Mr. BECHTEL. They are bound to pay them a certain established minimum wage under the Edmonds act?

Mr. SARIG. They are bound to pay them a minimum wage, but there is nothing in it to stop the school boards from giving them a voluntary reduction if the teachers agree to it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

The SPEAKER. The hour of 10.30 having arrived the Chair lays before the House the special order fixed for this time.

The special order was read by the Clerk as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED SENATE BILL RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented for concurrence bill numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 158:

An Act to amend section six, as amended, and section eight of an act approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 719), entitled "An act regulating certain political parties; providing for and regulating the nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices, the election of delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions, and of certain party officers, including State committeemen; a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States; and the payment by the several counties, and their reimbursement by the State, of the expenses of the same; authorizing the State committee of a political party to make, and to alter, amend, and revoke, rules; and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act, and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein; and repealing inconsistent legislation" prohibiting candidates for certain offices from being candidates for more than one party nomination and requiring candidates' affidavits from candidates for additional offices

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. HEFFERON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill before you for consideration is known as the party raiding bill. It is my opinion that the bill in question is a violation of the personal rights of the citizens of Pennsylvania, if not in the truest legal sense at least it violates the spirit of the day.

We are living in a progressive and a liberal age. Our citizens are capable of doing their own thinking. Surely the time is most inopportune to pass any measure which would in any way interfere with the rights of any man to run on as many tickets as he sees fit.

I also question the sincerity of the sponsors of this measure inasmuch as they have seen fit to exclude the judiciary from being bound by this bill. It looks to me as if the political expediency of the moment has prompted the bringing forward of this political measure, and I for one am against the House being used as an instrument to pull the political chestnuts of any one out of the fire.

I resent the fact that the good time of the House is being taken up by such a measure as this when such important matters as unemployment relief and tax legislation are still hanging fire.

I ask the members of this House to vote "no" on the concurrence in these amendments.

Mr. LENAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEFFERON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LENAHAN. Is it not a fact, Mr. Hefferon, that you were elected on both tickets at the last election?

Mr. HEFFERON. Always elected, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LENAHAN. Is that not the reason why you oppose this bill?

Mr. HEFFERON. No. Mr. Speaker, I would say that this bill is hatched in one county and it is for the purpose of taking care of that particular county, namely Lackawanna.

Mr. LENAHAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if there ever was in the history of county politics in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania a time that an act such as the act upon which we are called to vote, is necessary to the people of Pennsylvania it is now, and I say to the members of this House they should vote affirmatively upon this measure.

My friend from Luzerne County, Mr. Hefferon, is in favor of the defeat of this measure, because he has the assurance of the party leaders in Luzerne County that regardless of what ticket he desires to run upon he can gain not only the nomination but the election.

As a Democrat and as a member of this House and as a person who is willing to take my chances on the Democratic ticket in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I challenge the integrity of the gentleman from Luzerne when he says we should continue a party raider that goes into the Republican and even into the Democratic ranks, and when he goes before the people he is nothing more than a "Yes-man."

I say to the stalwart Republicans of this House and I say to the Democrats of this House in the interest of party government in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania we should approve the amendments in this bill and thereby place a certain restriction on those people who will want to come into the Democratic ranks and steal whatever nominations they possibly can get, and as a protection to the Republicans I say that the same holds true.

Therefore, ladies and gentlemen of the House, in the interests of the minority and the majority form of government in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I am going to ask you to concur in the amendments.

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Lenahan?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LENAHAN. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. MASON. Will the gentleman from Luzerne state whether or not he filed on two tickets during the last election?

Mr. LENAHAN. In answer to the gentleman from Luzerne I will state to the House that because of the custom in Luzerne County I filed on both tickets.

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in order to save any one from asking me the question at the end of this brief speech, I wish to state that I likewise filed on both tickets, but I was not fortunate enough to get both nominations.

I am not speaking against this bill on the basis alone that party raiding, so-called, should be allowed in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I feel this way about it; that if we are going to have one-party nominations in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania let us start at the top and finish at the bottom.

I can see no reason why after the House has passed the bill in its original form, a bill introduced by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, with the most altruistic purpose in view, and after being sent to the Governor, it should be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of exempting the judges. Why should they be allowed to party raid, so-called? Why should they be so sacrosanct that they could file on each and every ticket that is listed in the primary. I feel this way and I appeal to the members to vote against this measure for one purpose and one purpose alone: If it is defeated now it will be sent to a conference committee and I will submit to the conference committee two forms of amendment and leave it to the conference committee to decide whether they are going ahead with the altruistic idea of the original bill by adopting one amendment which will again include the judges or adopt the second amendment which will exclude the members of the House and the members of the Senate.

If we are going to make it a political bill let us make it a political bill as far as each and every one here is concerned. If you are going to make it a real one-party bill, let us have the judges file on one ticket as each of us will do at the next election.

I appeal to you to vote against these amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

MR. HUTTON IN THE CHAIR

RESOLUTIONS

CONGRATULATING THE SPEAKER

Mrs. PENNOCK offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 24, 1933.

On Sunday, April 23rd, two score years and eight had passed since, in East Coventry Township in the County of Chester in this Commonwealth, a child was born whose name was destined to be forever linked with the greatest effort ever undertaken by Pennsylvania for the relief of suffering and distress.

The loveable traits of this boy won for him early in life the friendship, respect and devotion of his companions—he was dependable and courageous, and election to public office, when he reached maturity, was the natural result of the esteem in which he was held by his neighbors.

Those same traits of character that made him councilman and then burgess of his home town of Norwood, later brought him to membership in this House, and it was his capacity to make and hold friends and his work in securing the passage against powerful opposition of the Talbot Relief Act at the Special Session of 1931 that made sure his election as our Speaker at this Session; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House congratulates its Speaker, the Hon. Grover C. Talbot, wishes him many glad and happy returns of his natal day, and assures him of its belief in his sure and certain rise to even more powerful and influential political positions in the Commonwealth; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and a copy thereof be handed to the Speaker by the Chief Clerk.

The resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

THE SPEAKER (GROVER C. TALBOT) IN THE CHAIR

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the membership for this expression of their feeling. The Chair will be heard from later.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the House of Representatives and Senate recalling from the Governor House Bill No. 1, Printer's No. 473, for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

In the House of Representatives, April 24, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 1, Printer's No. 473, entitled "An act relating to baseball and football on Sunday prohibiting baseball and football on Sunday during certain hours and also during certain other hours unless the electors of a municipality are in favor of the same and in certain cases a license has first been secured from the municipal authorities providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors and for the enactment and repeal of licensing ordinances and resolutions in accordance therewith providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws." be returned to the Governor without amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION No. 71

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 71, Printer's No. 925.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1933.

Whereas, The National Government, through the promulgation of an executive order to bring about economies, lessened benefits to veterans of all wars by some four hundred million dollars ($400,000,000), and

Whereas, This executive order will directly affect some fifty thousand World War and some thirty-five thousand Civil and Spanish War veterans residing in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, By the closest estimates the veterans of all wars resident within the confines of Pennsylvania will have their pensions of thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000), which they now receive yearly, cut to less than twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) and that many will be forced at the beginning of the government's new fiscal year to seek public aid for food, clothing, rent and fuel as a result, now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That on June 1, 1933, and thereafter so long as the present economic emergency shall exist, all new employees and appointees in the service of the Commonwealth shall be, all other things being equal, honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who had service in the war with Spain, the Philippine Insurrection, the Boxer Rebellion and the World War, and the State officers authorized to employ persons are hereby directed to give preference to honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines of the above mentioned wars and insurrections who are native born Pennsylvanians, or resident in this State one year or more, and who had service with the Pennsylvania troops. State employment bureaus shall give twenty per centum credit preference ratings to bona fide Pennsylvanians not born in this State but who have resided in Pennsylvania five years or more and who have served in said wars.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION No. 72

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 72, Printer's No. 979.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 19, 1933.

Whereas, The failure to finally enact legislation imposing a tax on malt and vinous beverages is resulting in the loss of a large amount of revenue to the State; and

Whereas, The continued honest disagreements as to the form of legislation relating to the regulation and taxation of these beverages unduly delays the day when these new revenues will be made available; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly hereby declares its intention that the State tax on brewed, malt, vinous and fruit juice beverage legalized by Act of Congress of the United States, shall be as follows: On brewed and malt beverages, one dollar and twenty-four cents ($1.24) a barrel, or equivalent; and on vinous and fruit juice beverages, three cents (3c) per gallon;

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby declares its intention that the law imposing said tax when enacted, will be made retroactive to the date when this resolution becomes effective by approval by the Governor.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the resolution be recommitted to the Committee on Ways and Means.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, tell the House why he wants this resolution to go back to the Committee on Ways and Means?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question, I think that the Ways and Means Committee should consider the proper amount of tax to be imposed upon beer. It seems to me that every state in the Union is imposing or has imposed a tax of one dollar. I don't know myself why Pennsylvania should try to make ten cent beer instead of five cent beer.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia tell the members of the House whether or not there was an agreement between certain leaders of the House and the Governor at one dollar and twenty-four cents, including Mr. Sowers?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is somewhat out of order. There is a motion to send the resolution to a committee. Its merits can not be discussed at this time.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, most every one was here last week when the argument was on the floor of this House. By this resolution it was hoped to have at least ten thousand dollars a day for the unemployed.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I arise to call your attention to the fact that this resolution is not on file.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is informed that the resolution is not on file and therefor it can not be considered at this time.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, last week, on Wednesday, I went personally, at the request of the members of this House, to the pages and they distributed them to everybody in the House, because the Chief page told me so.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is informed that the Chair has no alternative when a member informs the Chair that the resolution is not on file. Therefore, it can not be considered.

Mr. SHORTZ. Mr. Speaker, the resolution is on my file.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I inform the Speaker that the resolution is on page 419 of the House history for this week.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The ayes and nays were required for by Mr. Jones and Mr. Hermansen.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll call.

The roll call was verified and was as follows:
